LIQUIDATING TRUST'S REPLY BRIEF REGARDING OBJECTION TO ADMINISTRATIVE CLAIM FILED BY TECH FOR LESS LLC

The Circuit City Stores, Inc. Liquidating Trust (the "Liquidating Trust"), through Alfred H. Siegel, the duly appointed trustee of the Trust (the "Trustee"), pursuant to the Second Amended Joint Plan of Liquidation of Circuit City Stores, Inc. and its Affiliated Debtors and Debtors in Possession and its Official Committee of Creditors Holding General Unsecured Claims (the "Plan") in the above-captioned cases, hereby files this Reply Brief Regarding Objection to Administrative Claim Filed by Tech for Less LLC, and respectfully states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

The Liquidating Trust objected to an administrative claim in the amount of $104,986.36 (Claim No. 13947, the “Claim”) filed by Tech For Less, LLC (“TFL” or “Claimant”) on the grounds that the books and records of the Debtors showed no liability to Claimant. A true and correct copy of the Claim is attached hereto as Exhibit A. TFL’s basis for the Claim is that it purchased a bulk quantity of electronic goods from the Debtors pursuant to an online auction and allegedly did not obtain the correct amount of goods. The Response of TFL Enterprises LLC to the Liquidating Trust’s Seventh Omnibus Objection to Claims (Reduction of Certain Partially Invalid Claims, Disallowance of Certain Invalid Claims and Reclassification of Certain Incorrectly Classified Claims) [Docket No. 10233] (the “Response”) restates the basis for the Claim. A true and correct copy of the Response is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

In December, 2008, TFL placed a winning bid of $530,020 for end of life, returned or salvaged merchandise with a retail value of $2,765,971.62. According to TFL’s reconciliation, which it completed in June, 2009, almost six months after the auction ended, the retail value of the items accepted totaled $2,218,098.03. TFL then filed an administrative claim for $104,986.36, which amount represents the percentage of claimed shortfall of merchandise.

Upon reviewing the Claim and the Response, the Liquidating Trust has confirmed that the books and records of the Debtor were correct, and that the Debtors have no liability on account of the Claim. The Claim should be disallowed for at least the following reasons:

- Pursuant to the terms of the auction at which the goods were purchased,

TFL was given the right to inspect the merchandise prior to accepting it at Circuit City's premises. Upon removing the merchandise from Circuit City's premises, TFL "explicitly agreed" it would have no right to refuse or return the merchandise.

- Even in the absence of the agreement, which explicitly provided a deadline for rejection (i.e., at Circuit City's premises before removing the goods), UCC law makes clear that the merchandise was accepted, in the absence of a timely rejection. TFL waited almost six months before notifying the Debtor of the purported shortage of electronic goods; accordingly, it had accepted the goods as a matter of law.
- TFL has not adequately proven that the goods, as described, were not available for pickup at Circuit City. TFL has merely asserted that, six months after sending its agent to pick up the goods, the contents in TFL's possession were not conforming. TFL has not proven: (1) that the goods presented to its agent at the Circuit City location at the time of acceptance by the agent were non-conforming; (2) that the goods delivered to its location were the same goods accepted by its agent (i.e. theft in transit); and (3) that the goods delivered to TFL by its agent were the same goods catalogued by TFL six months later (i.e. theft or mishandling of the goods while in TFL's possession over five to six months).
- The auction allowed a +/- 5% variance, which was referenced, but not incorporated, in TFL's Claim. Even if (1) there were no binding contract, (2) UCC laws did not apply, and (3) TFL could prove the goods did not conform, the maximum liability must take into account the allowed variance, making the maximum claim $82,620.12.

Ignoring the binding contract and applicable commercial law, TFL asserts it is entitled to an administrative claim based on a purported shortage of merchandise it accepted. However, under the parties' contract, TFL had an obligation to inspect and reject the goods at Circuit City's premises prior to removing them or be barred from subsequently seeking relief.

In exchange for obtaining the merchandise at such a large discount, TFL accepted certain agreed-upon risks; including that TFL had no right to refuse or return the merchandise after removing it from Circuit City's premises. By not inspecting the goods at the point of acceptance, TFL took on the risk that the goods might not conform, and that it might not receive the correct amount of merchandise if it did not inspect the merchandise prior to removing it. If TFL's Claim is allowed, the risk would be inappropriately shifted to the Debtors. The Claim should be disallowed in its entirety.

ARGUMENT

1. The Binding Contract Precludes the Claim. By purchasing the merchandise through the auction, TFL agreed to the terms and conditions included in the Electronics Merchandise Liquidation Agreement (the "Agreement"). A copy of the Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

2. The Agreement provides, in relevant part:

3. Delivery and Removal of Merchandise. The Merchandise shall be made available to Purchaser for receipt during normal business hours at the Circuit City facility identified in the Invoice relating to such Merchandise. Purchaser shall be solely responsible for removal of the Merchandise from Circuit City's premises and for all shipping arrangements (including, without limitation, permits and licenses), expenses and labor. Purchaser's employees, equipment, and property, and that of Purchaser's agents, enter and remain on Circuit City's premises entirely at Purchaser's risk as regards any and all hazards excepting only those found to be caused by Circuit City's sole negligence. While on Circuit City's premises, Purchaser's employees and agents must observe Circuit City's rules and regulations.

4. Title; Risk of Loss. Title to the Merchandise shall remain with Circuit City until Purchaser takes possession of the Merchandise at Circuit City's location identified on the Invoice. Purchaser expressly acknowledges that risk of loss and liability for the Merchandise shall pass to Purchaser upon Purchaser's or its agent's receipt of the Merchandise at Circuit City's premises. Purchaser or its agent shall have the right to inspect the Merchandise prior to accepting possession to ensure compliance with the terms of the Invoice. Purchaser expressly acknowledges and agrees that it shall have no right to refuse or return the Merchandise after accepting possession of the Merchandise at Circuit City's premises.

13. Authority of Circuit City's Agents. No agent, employee or representative of Circuit City has any authority to bind Circuit City to any representation or warranty concerning the Merchandise and, unless any representation or warranty made by an agent, employee or representative is specifically included within this Agreement, it is not part of the basis of the agreement and shall not be enforceable against Circuit City.

Agreement, at ¶¶ 3, 4 and 13 (emphasis added).

3. TFL expressly agreed that it would have no right to refuse or return the merchandise after accepting possession at Circuit City's premises. Pursuant to the Agreement, TFL's obligation was to inspect the merchandise at Circuit City's premises before removing it or risk that the merchandise did not conform. Agreement at ¶4. Apparently, it chose to take the risk that the merchandise it accepted would be conforming. Instead of acknowledging that risk, TFL now suggests that the Court should ignore the clear language of the Agreement and shift the risk of non-conformity to the Debtors' estate.

4. From a legal perspective, since the goods were accepted by TFL pursuant to the Agreement, the Claim simply cannot stand. From an equitable perspective, the result is the same. TFL could have sent a representative to verify the merchandise prior to acceptance, but it chose not to. There estate should not be made to pay for TFL's failure to inspect the merchandise as it should have. Accordingly, the Claim should be denied.

5. UCC Law Dictates The Same Result. Even if an express contract provision did not govern the transaction, the Uniform Commercial Code establishes that acceptance of goods occurs when a buyer: (a) after a reasonable opportunity to inspect the goods, signifies that they are conforming; or (b) fails to make an effective rejection, i.e., within a reasonable time. See UCC § 2-606; § 2-602.

6. In these auctions, Circuit City did not deliver the merchandise; rather, it was available for pick-up by the buyer. Accordingly, TFL or its agents were afforded a reasonable opportunity to inspect the goods and, by taking them, signified that they were conforming. Alternatively, TFL did not effectively reject the merchandise because its delay of almost six months before reconciling the contents did not constitute a timely rejection. Further, rather than notifying seller of the alleged non-conformity and attempting to address the issues, TFL filed an administrative claim in the case, which may not constitute a valid rejection at all.

7. Thus, under either the Agreement or the Uniform Commercial Code law, TFL accepted the goods with no right to subsequently and untimely reject them. Accordingly, the Claim should be denied.

8. TFL's Reconciliation Does Not Evidence Liability. Even if the Agreement and UCC law did not make clear that TFL both accepted the goods and had no right to reject them five or six months later, TFL has merely alleged that, in June of 2009, six months after the auction ended, it did not have the correct merchandise. Notably, TFL has not established (1) that the correct merchandise was not available at Circuit City's location; (2) that it was not its own agent's fault that the correct merchandise was not loaded, to the extent it was not; (3) that TFL's agent (shipper) was not responsible for any of the alleged loss; and (4) that the merchandise did not get stolen or misplaced when it was in TFL's possession for five months.

9. At most, TFL can only claim that the merchandise it had in June did not conform to the merchandise in the auction description. TFL has not provided enough evidence to show that the Debtors have any responsibility for the alleged loss. Accordingly, the Claim should be denied.

10. A Five Percent Variance Was Allowed. If the Claim is somehow allowable, it is overstated. Both the Claim and auction listing, a copy of which is attached to the Claim as Exhibit E, state that a five percent variance was allowed. Accordingly, based on the way TFL calculated its claim (percent shortage of retail value applied to purchase price), the maximum liability on the Claim should be $82,630.12.

CONCLUSION

The parties' Agreement expressly defeats the Claim, as do applicable UCC provisions. TFL has failed to demonstrate that the Claim is factually and legally warranted. The Liquidating Trust respectfully submits that the Court should enter an order sustaining the Objection and disallowing the Claim, and granting such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

ADMINISTRATIVE CLAIM REQUEST OF TECH FOR LESS, LLC
PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)

Tech for Less LLC ("TFL") hereby files this request for allowance of administrative expense obligations pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b) with respect to claims arising from the above-captioned debtor's (the "Debtor") incomplete delivery of goods purchased after the Petition Date by TFL, and respectfully represents in support thereof as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. On November 10, 2008 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code").
2. Since the Petition Date, the Debtor continued in the operation of its business of liquidating inventory deemed to be end of life product, store returns and salvage product through a website operated under the DBA name of Trading Circuit, as a debtor-in-possession pursuant to Sections §§ 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. A printed image, or screenshot, from the Billing Information section of the Trading Circuit website evidencing Trading Circuit's status as a DBA entity of Circuit City Store, Inc. is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit "A".
3. Specifically, pursuant to an online auction completed on December 9, 2008 between TFL, as purchaser, and the Debtor, as seller, the Debtor agreed to sell to TFL a bulk lot of certain store return items as represented by the auction lot description "Reseller.WAL.CE.695365.B+", herein referred to as the "Liquidated Inventory". As part of the lot description, Debtor provided Retail Value ("Reference Value") for each item individually and for the bulk lot in total. The Reference Value for the whole of the Liquidated Inventory (referred to as the "Original Reference Amount") being equal to two million, seven hundred sixty-five thousand nine hundred seventy-one dollars and sixty-two cents ($2,765,971.62). A copy of the confirmation notice awarding the Liquidated Inventory to TFL by Debtor is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit "B". A copy of the item detail comprising the Liquidated Inventory is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit "C".

4. On December 11, 2008, TFL delivered to Debtor the total sum of five hundred thirty thousand and twenty dollars ($530,020) via federal funds wire as payment in full for the Liquidated Inventory (the "Purchase Price"). A copy of the money transfer statement is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit "D".

5. Beginning on December 12, 2008 and completing on December 15, 2008 Debtor delivered to TFL's authorized freight carrier five truckloads of store return product represented as the complete list of items comprising the Liquidated Inventory.

6. The terms and conditions generally employed by Trading Circuit for the sale of end of life products, store returns, and salvage products allowed for a manifest variance of (+/-) 5%. A copy of these terms and conditions is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit "E".

7. TFL completed receiving and auditing the Liquidated Inventory items on June 5, 2009. A final reconciliation was prepared to compare the product received to the items listed in Exhibit C. The results of the final reconciliation revealed a shortage of 1,757 pieces representing five hundred forty-seven thousand eight hundred seventy three dollars and fifty-nine cents ($547,873.59) in Extended Retail Value (the "Shortage Reference Amount"). A copy of this reconciliation report is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit "F".

8. The Debtor remains liable for obligations arising from contracts entered into post-petition. Specifically, post-petition sale of goods and services are required to be satisfied timely and in full pursuant to § 363(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

CONCLUSION

9. For the foregoing reasons, TFL is entitled to the allowance of an administrative expense claim as equitable remedy for Debtor's failure to deliver to TFL the whole lot of Liquidated Inventory within the allowable manifest variance of (+/-) 5%.

10. The specific amount of this administrative claim is determined to be $104,986.36, as reflected in the following calculation. The portion of Liquidated Inventory that Debtor failed to deliver to TFL is equal to 19.808% (the "Shortage Percentage"), as determined by dividing the Shortage Reference Amount by the Original Reference Amount. Therefore, TFL is entitled to equitable relief in an amount equal to 19.808% times the Purchase Price, or one hundred four thousand nine hundred eighty-six dollars and thirty-six cents ($104,986.36).

WHEREFORE, TFL respectfully requests the entry of an order pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b) allowing as an administrative expense obligation against the Debtor's estate a claim in the amount of $104,986.36 plus costs and expenses associated with the collection thereof, together with such other and further relief as is just and proper.

United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Virginia (the “Bankruptcy Court”).

2. After the Petition Date, Circuit City continued in operation of its business of liquidating inventory as a debtor-in-possession pursuant to Sections §§ 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. On December 9, 2008, pursuant to an online auction, Circuit City agreed to sell to Tech For Less LLC (“Tech”) a bulk lot of certain store return items (the “Liquidated Inventory”).

4. On June 5, 2009, Tech completed receiving and auditing the Liquidated Inventory items. A final reconciliation comparing the product received to the list of item details comprising the Liquidated Inventory revealed a shortage of 1,757 pieces.

5. On June 30, 2009, Tech filed an administrative proof of claim against Circuit City Stores, Inc. in the amount of $104,986.36 (Claim No. 13947, the “Administrative Claim”) for the portion of the Liquidated Inventory that Circuit City failed to deliver.

6. On December 4, 2009, Tech transferred its interest in the Administrative Claim to TFL, its affiliate, pursuant to Rule 3001(e)(2) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (“FRBP”).

7. On September 10, 2010, the Bankruptcy Court confirmed the Second Amended Joint Plan of Liquidation of Circuit City Stores, Inc. and its Affiliated Debtors and Debtors in Possession and its Official Committee of Creditors Holding General Unsecured Claims (the “Plan”). Pursuant to the Plan, the Circuit City Stores, Inc. Liquidating Trust (the “Liquidating Trust”) assumed the right and responsibility to liquidate the Debtors’ remaining assets, including the prosecution of causes of action and objections to claims.

8. On February 25, 2011, the Liquidating Trust filed the Objection which seeks to expunge TFL’s Administrative Claim without any explanation or substantiation. (See Objection, Exh. G).

ARGUMENT

9. The Bankruptcy Court should deny the Objection as it relates to TFL’s Administrative Claim because the Objection fails to meet the substantive requirements set forth in Rules 3001(f) and 3007(d) of the FRBP.

10. A filed proof of claim constitutes prima facie evidence of the claim’s validity and amount. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3001(f). See also In re Mid-Am. Waste Sys., Inc., 284 B.R. 53, 65 (Bankr. D. Del. 2002) (“A claimant filing a proof of claim must allege facts sufficient to support a legal basis for the claim. If the assertions in the filed claim meet this standard of sufficiency, the claim is prima facie valid pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3001(f).”).

11. A party objecting to a filed proof of claim bears the burden of presenting “enough evidence to overcome the prima facie effect of the claim.” McGee v. O'Connor (In re O'Connor), 153 F.3d 258, 260 (5th Cir. 1998) (emphasis added); In re Mid-Am. Waste Sys., Inc., 284 B.R. at 65 (objecting party must present “sufficient evidence to overcome the presumed validity and amount of the claim”) (emphasis added). The objector must “produce evidence tending to defeat the claim that is of a probative force equal to that of the creditor’s proof of claim.” See In re Simmons, 765 F.2d 547, 552 (5th Cir. 1985); In re Alleghany Int’l, Inc., 954 F.2d 167, 173 (3d Cir. 1992) (objector must present evidence that is “equal in force” to the prima facie evidence supporting the claim).

12. In the Objection, the Liquidating Trust declares without any substantiation or evidence that the “Debtors’ books and records show no liability to claimant,” that the “claim is for shortages of product delivered,” and that “the entire claim should be expunged.” (See Objection, Exh. G). Yet the Liquidating Trust provides no explanation or other supporting documentation to validate its contention that TFL’s claim should be expunged. In contrast, the Administrative Claim sets forth substantial detail and supporting documentation regarding, inter alia, the Liquidated Inventory, the reconciliation of that inventory, and the terms and conditions governing the sale. None of these are refuted or – even mentioned – in the Objection.

13. Since the Objection fails to provide such support, the Liquidating Trust has not met its burden of presenting “enough evidence” to overcome the presumptive validity of the Administrative Claim under Rule 3001(f).

14. For the foregoing reasons, the Bankruptcy Court should deny the Objection as it relates to the Administrative Claim. TFL expressly reserves all other rights and remedies under the Bankruptcy Code and other applicable law.

WHEREFORE, TFL respectfully requests that the Bankruptcy Court (i) deny the Objection as it relates to the Administrative Claim, (ii) deem the Administrative Claim against the Debtors to be allowed in the amount set forth therein, and (iii) grant such other relief as the Bankruptcy Court deems just and proper.

ELECTRONICS MERCHANDISE LIQUIDATION AGREEMENT

Recitals:

WHEREAS, Circuit City desires to sell to Purchaser, and Purchaser desires to purchase from Circuit City, electronics merchandise which has been returned to Circuit City by its customers or has been removed by Circuit City from its retail store inventory (the "Merchandise").

Agreement:

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises herein contained and other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Sale and Purchase. Circuit City shall sell and Purchaser shall purchase the Merchandise as more particularly set forth in an invoice provided by Circuit City to Purchaser substantially in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof ("Invoice"). Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that any purchase of Circuit City Merchandise is on a non-exclusive basis and subject to availability. Purchaser acknowledges that Circuit City is not required to sell Merchandise to Purchaser and that Purchaser is not required to buy Merchandise from Circuit City. It is the intention of the parties that this Agreement and the relevant Invoices shall constitute a single agreement governing the purchase of Merchandise.
2. Merchandise Purchase Procedure. Circuit City will submit Merchandise for sale via a request for bid ("Bid Request") delivered to Purchaser by electronic mail, fax, regular mail or other method. The Bid Request shall include (i) an itemized list of the Merchandise, (ii) the price of the Merchandise, (iii) the Circuit City premises at which the Merchandise is located, and (iv) such other terms and conditions of sale as may be required by Circuit City. Purchaser shall respond to a Bid Request as soon as practicable. Responses to the Bid Request shall be strictly in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Bid Request, unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing by an authorized representative of Circuit City. Circuit City shall notify Purchaser that its bid had been accepted by delivery of an Invoice for the Merchandise. All terms and conditions contained in the Bid Request shall be incorporated in the Invoice and shall govern the purchase of the Merchandise relating to such Invoice, unless otherwise provided by Circuit City. Within forty-eight (48) hours after Circuit City's delivery of the Invoice, Purchaser shall arrange for payment to Circuit City and for receipt of the Merchandise at the Circuit City facility identified on the Invoice.
3. Delivery and Removal of Merchandise. The Merchandise shall be made available to Purchaser for receipt during normal business hours at the Circuit City facility identified in the Invoice relating to such Merchandise. Purchaser shall be solely responsible for removal of the Merchandise from Circuit City's premises and for all shipping arrangements (including, without limitation, permits and licenses), expenses and labor. Purchaser's employees, equipment, and property, and that of Purchaser's agents, enter and remain on Circuit City's premises entirely at Purchaser's risk as regards any and all hazards excepting only those found to be caused by Circuit City's sole negligence. While on Circuit City's premises, Purchaser's employees and agents must observe Circuit City's rules and regulations.
4. Title; Risk of Loss. Title to the Merchandise shall remain with Circuit City until Purchaser takes possession of the Merchandise at Circuit City's location identified on the Invoice. Purchaser expressly acknowledges that risk of loss and liability for the Merchandise shall pass to Purchaser upon Purchaser's or its agent's receipt of the Merchandise at Circuit City's premises. Purchaser or its agent shall have the right to inspect the Merchandise prior to accepting possession to ensure compliance with the terms of the Invoice. Purchaser expressly acknowledges and agrees that it shall have no right to refuse or return the Merchandise after accepting possession of the Merchandise at Circuit City's premises.

5. Warranties. Circuit City warrants that it has good and marketable title to the Merchandise. CIRCUIT CITY MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE. PURCHASER EXPRESSLY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT THE MERCHANDISE IS SOLD BY CIRCUIT CITY AND PURCHASED BY PURCHASER "WHERE IS," "AS IS" AND "WITH ALL FAULTS."

6. Right to Resale. Purchaser shall unilaterally establish its own prices and terms with respect to the resale of the Merchandise, and Circuit City shall not in any way interfere with Purchaser's pricing and sales terms. However, as a condition to the sale of Merchandise hereunder to Purchaser, Purchaser hereby agrees: (i) to remove or make otherwise permanently illegible any Circuit City identification marks, including without limitation tags, labels, SKU numbers, and bar codes, from all Merchandise purchased hereunder prior to any resale; (ii) not to resell any Merchandise identifying same as Circuit City goods or products; (iii) to remove or delete all Circuit City customer information, including without limitation sales receipts, addresses, phone numbers and credit card numbers, that may be included with the Merchandise; (iv) in the event that some of the Merchandise is comprised of computers or other products which capture personal data, to delete all files and other information contained within the central processing unit, except for the standard software programs or chips originally installed by the manufacturer of the Merchandise; and (v) in the event that some of the Merchandise is comprised of cellular phones or other phone products which capture personal data such as phone numbers, to delete all such phone numbers, files and other information contained within the processing unit, except for the standard software programs or chips originally installed by the manufacturer of the Merchandise. Further, Purchaser will not advise its purchasers that the Merchandise can be returned to a Circuit City store. In no event shall Purchaser advertise the Merchandise for resale using the Circuit City name or other reference to Circuit City. In the event of a violation of any of the representations and warranties contained in this Section 6, in addition to all other remedies Circuit City may have at law, in equity or under this Agreement, Purchaser agrees to pay Circuit City the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) per incident as liquidated damages, and not as a penalty. The terms of this Section 6 shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

7. Indemnification.

a. Purchaser agrees to indemnify and hold Circuit City, its employees, agents and affiliates, harmless from any and all claims of any kind or nature, including but not limited to all claims, demands, judgments, orders, decrees, awards, costs, and expenses including attorneys' fees and claims on account of damage to property, personal injury or actions of any kind or nature arising from (i) any sale, resale, use or handling of Circuit City Merchandise; or (ii) Purchaser's performance or non-performance or breach of this Agreement.

b. Circuit City agrees to indemnify and hold Purchaser, its employees, agents and affiliates, harmless from any and all claims of any kind or nature, including but not limited to all claims, demands, judgments, orders, decrees, awards, costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees and claims on account of damage to property, personal injury or actions of any kind or nature arising from Circuit City's performance or non-performance or breach of this Agreement. THE LIMIT OF CIRCUIT CITY'S LIABILITY FOR ANY CLAIM ARISING OUT OF THIS

TRANSACTION WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT OR STRICT LIABILITY SHALL BE THE INVOICE PRICE OF THE PARTICULAR SHIPMENT OUT OF WHICH THE CLAIM ARISES AND IN NO EVENT SHALL CIRCUIT CITY BE LIABLE FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES.

c. The terms of this Section 7 shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

8. Term and Termination.

a. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue in effect until terminated as provided herein.

b. This Agreement may be terminated with or without cause by either party without liability or obligation upon not less than sixty (60) days notice to the other party.

c. Either party may terminate this Agreement immediately, without liability or further obligation, upon notice to the other party if the other party (i) breaches any term of this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within ten (10) business days following receipt of notice of such breach, (ii) becomes insolvent, files (or has filed against it) a petition in bankruptcy, makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or ceases normal business operations, or (iii) assigns or attempts to assign this Agreement or any of the rights and obligations hereunder without first obtaining consent as required herein.

9. Compliance with Laws. Circuit City and Purchaser shall comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations in performing their respective obligations hereunder. Further, to the extent applicable Purchaser shall comply, and shall ensure that its agents and representatives comply, with all applicable laws and regulations relating to shipping of products for transit outside of the United States, including without limitation all applicable customs laws and regulations. Purchaser shall be solely responsible for any taxes, duties or other payments due with regard to compliance with such applicable laws.

10. Force Majeure. Neither party shall be liable to the other party for failure or delay in performance hereunder due in whole or in part to an act of God, strike, lockout or other labor dispute, civil commotion, sabotage, fire, flood, explosion, acts of any government, unforeseen shortages or unavailability of fuel, power, transportation, or supplies, and any other causes which are not within such party's reasonable control, whether or not of the kind specifically enumerated above. In such event and at the option of the other party, the period of performance for such party may be extended for a period of time equal to the interruption or delay.

11. Confidentiality.

a. During the course of performance of this Agreement, a party and/or its affiliates (the "Disclosing Party") may share with the other party (the "Receiving Party") certain documents and information, including, but not limited to, information pertaining to products, business practices, schedules, services, methods, data, processes, and operating procedures which the Disclosing Party considers to be, and treats as, confidential ("Confidential Information"), whether or not specifically identified as such. The Receiving Party shall maintain the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information, in confidence, shall protect it with the same degree of care which it uses to protect its own Confidential Information (which shall be not less than reasonable care), shall not disclose it to any third party and shall use it for the sole purpose of performing under this Agreement. At the conclusion of the Agreement, the Receiving Party shall either return the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information in its possession (including all copies) or shall, at the Disclosing Party's direction, destroy the Receiving Party's Confidential Information (including all copies) and certify its destruction to the Disclosing Party. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "Confidential Information" shall not include any information which: (a) is in the public domain at the time of disclosure or enters the public domain following disclosure through no fault of the Receiving Party; (b) the Receiving Party can demonstrate was already in its possession prior to disclosure hereunder or is subsequently disclosed to the Receiving Party with no obligation of confidentiality by a third party having the right to disclose it; or (c) is independently developed by the receiving party without reference to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information, provided that the Receiving Party can clearly demonstrate such independent development through contemporaneous records showing such development. The Receiving Party may disclose the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information upon the order of any court of competent jurisdiction or as otherwise required by law or legal process, provided that prior to such disclosure the Receiving Party shall inform the Disclosing Party of such order if permitted by law, in order to provide the Disclosing Party with an opportunity to contest such order or to seek such other protective action as the Disclosing Party may elect. Neither party shall issue any press release regarding this Agreement or otherwise disclose the relationship of the parties hereunder without the other party's prior written approval. In the event of a violation of the terms of this Section 11, because of the unique nature of the Confidential Information, the Disclosing Party would suffer irreparable harm, and money damages and other remedies at law available in the event of a breach or a threatened breach would not be adequate to compensate for the harm caused by the breach or the threatened breach. Accordingly, in addition to any other remedies it may have hereunder or at law or in equity, the Disclosing Party shall have the right to obtain injunctive relief for violation of the terms of this Section 11.

b. The terms of this Section 11 shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

12. Entire Agreement. This Agreement shall be a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement between the parties. Upon acceptance, it will supersede all prior agreements, written or oral. No course of prior dealing between the parties and no usage of trade shall be relevant to supplement or explain any term used in this Agreement.

13. Authority of Circuit City's Agents. No agent, employee or representative of Circuit City has any authority to bind Circuit City to any representation or warranty concerning the Merchandise and, unless any representation or warranty made by an agent, employee or representative is specifically included within this Agreement, it is not part of the basis of the agreement and shall not be enforceable against Circuit City.

14. Modifications. This Agreement can be modified or rescinded only by a writing signed by both parties or their duly authorized agents.

15. Assignment. This Agreement may not be assigned by either party without the written consent of the other.

16. Binding Effect. This Agreement is binding on the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

17. Severability. Should any provision of this Agreement be held to be void, invalid or illegal by a court of competent jurisdiction, the validity and enforceability of the other provisions shall not be affected thereby.

18. Independent Contractor. It is specifically agreed and understood that Purchaser is an independent contractor and not an agent of Circuit City.

19. Applicable Law. This Agreement is made in and intended to be performed in and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, United States of America, without regard to its conflict of laws rules. Any dispute arising hereunder shall be adjudicated in a court of competent jurisdiction located in the Commonwealth of Virginia, United States of America.

20. Waiver. Neither party shall be deemed to have waived any right, power, privilege or remedy unless such waiver is in writing and duly executed by it. No failure to exercise, delay in exercising or course of dealing with respect to any right, power, privilege or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof by either party or of any other right, power, privilege or remedy. No exercise or partial exercise of any right, power, privilege or remedy shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof by either party or the exercise of any other right, power, privilege or remedy by such party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be executed in duplicate, each to have the full force and effect of an original, by their duly authorized representatives all as of the Effective Date.
